

Corryville Catholic Courier for February 24, 2017

Have you completed your child's Registration for the 2017-2018 school year? Our deadline was 2/17th. The registration fees doubled 2/ 18. Ed Choice Scholarship renewals are also past due.

Our Ash Wednesday Service is March 1st at 1:45. Families are always invited to come and pray with us.

Parent Teacher Conferences sign-ups are attached. Corryville Catholic has no school on Friday, March 10th to accommodate conferences.

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati administers the IOWA tests. We'll begin our testing on March 1. A good night's sleep and a delicious breakfast are two ingredients of a successful student.

Our World's Finest Chocolate sale has concluded. So far, our technology fund has earned $3,000! Thank You so much for your support of technology!!

We had a great week celebrating Reading! We wore our PJ's to school so we could read in our pajamas. Our junior high students sang about the lonely books in the library just waiting for someone to come and check them out. We were inspired by a group of second grade girls chanting and dancing about the joy of reading. We concluded our celebration by dressing as our favorite book characters. What's your favorite book?

Our Box Top Challenge has concluded.

Final Tally: boys= 757 girls =776

Corryville Catholic girls won and may be out of uniform on Tuesday, February 28th!
