

Parent Teacher Conferences

February 17, 2017

Dear Corryville Catholic Families,

The second trimester is drawing to a close and report cards will go home on Friday, March 3rd.

You are invited to join in a dialogue with your child’s teacher to make this last trimester be your child’s strongest yet. This communication between families and the teacher is essential for academic and personal success in school. This Spring Conference is not mandatory.

Please indicate below your first and second choice of times to schedule a conference. Return the form to your child’s homeroom no later than Friday, February 24th. Forms returned by February 24th will receive priority scheduling.
